

Kidsborough Summer 2010 Program Description

Week 1 – “Party in the USA” 6/28 – 7/02

So many things to celebrate about living in the USA! We'll do projects that teach us about America's National Landmarks, hold a mock election, play a little wiffle ball (Kidsborough's favorite pastime), make a July 4th craft or two, and host a barbeque with hotdogs and cherry pie!

Week 2 – “Soil, Slugs and Sunflowers ” 7/05 – 7/09

All things glorious (and sometimes gross) in the garden. This week we will do indoor and outdoor sunflower projects, including the use of a science journal to chart the growth of our sunflowers all summer long. We'll get our hands a little dirty learning how to compost, planting flowers and (if all goes according to plan) building a Kidsborough vegetable garden!

Week 3 – “Halloween in July ” 7/12 – 7/16

Soon to be a staple in our summer line up..Everything Halloween in full Kidsborough fashion! We'll make lots of Halloween crafts and foods, learn a few tricks and of course host a Halloween Party!

Week 4 – “Mr. P's Time Machine ” 7/19 – 7/23

Every day will be a different destination in time. In years past we have visited Prehistoric Dinosaurs, Medieval Knights, the Future, and the Wild West! Hold on to your hat, Mr. P is at the wheel!

Week 5 – “Life's a Carnival” 7/26 – 7/30

A little earlier than usual, but always a favorite! Hope to see you during our 7th Annual Kidsborough Carnival Week.

Week 6 – “Author, Author, Read All About It” 8/02 – 8/06

This week is filled with our favorite children's authors including Eric Carle, Leo Lionni, Jan Brett, Ezra Jack Keats, Margaret Wise Brown and more. Expect loads of beautiful art and tasty cooking projects, a little science and a group book or two to be displayed at Kidsborough.

Week 7 – “Health Nuts!” 8/09 – 8/13

From the food pyramid to mini yoga sessions, this week is all about taking care of our bodies. We'll have visits from various fitness instructors and health professionals and head to a Massachusetts State Park for a fun hike and picnic lunch!

Week 8 – “You Say It's Your Birthday” 8/16 – 8/20

Back by popular demand...A different birthday party every day of the week. Musical chairs, the limbo, cake, piñatas, pin-the-tail on the donkey, pizza, crafts and so much more. Possible themes include: A Pirate Party, 70's Disco Party, Boot Camp Party, American Idol Party, Luau Party, Safari Party, Jedi Training Party and Barney (just kidding!).

Week 9 – “Abacus to Zucchini in a Week ” 8/23 – 8/27

We'll head back-to-school by celebrating “A to Z” in a week. Each day will include sequential letters from the alphabet. We'll start by building our own abacus and end with making zucchini bread! This should be “A Brilliant Celebration.”
